BIO

Facundo Giordano is a 33-year-old Argentine artist. He began his career as a dancer and actor, standing out on international television channels (Disney, Paramount, Telefe and Canal13) and also in the most important theaters in the country (Grand Rex, LunaPark, Metropolitan, etc.)

During the pandemic in 2020, he taught himself how to use CDJs, and from that moment on, he discovered a new passion: making people dance.

He is currently part of the company “El Choque Urbano” and “BRESH” party, where he exhibits his talent in dance, percussion and DJing.

His charisma, musical selection and ability to transmit energy and joy have led him to play in several national and international clubs: AMNESIA, LolasClub, Esbirra, Dunes (IBIZA,ES) Geba Stadium, CC Konex, NicetoClub, Zegre, Gallery, Club Araoz, Plaza de la musica (ARG) AlicePark, FexpoCruz (BOL) Metroymedio, Cosquin rock (UY)

CONTACT

A DJ with headphones around his neck is performing at night. He is illuminated by several bright spotlights from above, creating a dramatic effect. In the foreground, the silhouettes of several people are visible, looking towards the DJ. The background is dark, with some structural elements of the venue visible on the right.
