ABOUT PAZ SHANTI

MUSICA PARA EL ALMA

Paz Shanti is a singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist born in Argentina, particularly recognized for creating music with a spiritual and therapeutic focus.

She was born in a musical environment, started studying the guitar at age 7 and singing poliphonies with her family at age of 4.

She was born in Buenos Aires surrounded by different styles of music: argentinean Folk, European music, Brazilian bossa, tango and classical music.

At the age of 14, she began to fully dedicate herself to her music path, until she started travelling the world and developed as a multi-instrumentalis creating her one style of music.

A traveler and explorer of nature, Paz is also a composer and co-producer of experimental medicine music. She serves as a ceremony holder, carrier of the Missa Andina, and fire bearer, roles that reflect her deep commitment to sacred rituals and cultural preservation.

For the past eight years, she has been serving in master plant medicine ceremonies, weaving music and prayer throughout the nights. This experience has enriched her repertoire, deepened the vibration and wisdom of her voice, and nurtured a profound commitment to protecting and supporting Indigenous people and their knowledge.

Concerts, voice activations and singing circles

Presence in events and ceremonies. Paz Shanti regularly participates in events, healing ceremonies, spiritual retreats, and women circles, where she performs live concerts and musical interventions with a strong spiritual and ceremonial component. Through these activities, she connects deeply with her audience, creating spaces for personal and collective transformation.

"Paz creates her medicine music entirely organically and through live performance. She loves blending different art forms—collaborating with dancers, painters, and other creatives. Her concerts are filled with joy, love, and a deep sense of connection with the audience. Naturally, everyone ends up singing and dancing together.
